

Days of the Week in Bisaya

Philippines was conquered for more than 300 years by the Spaniards. Our language has mixed of native and Spanish words. You may notice too that some of our names are of Spanish origin.

One perfect example is the days of the week. There's just a slight difference on the spelling and pronunciation.

Monday - Lunes

Tuesday - Martes

Wednesday - Miyerkules

Thursday - Huwebes

Friday - Biernes

Saturday - Sabado

Sunday - Domingo

Week - Semana

Sentence examples:

I don't have work on(every) Sundays.

Wala koy trabaho kada Domingo.

Vocabulary:

I don't have - Wala koy

work - trabaho

on(every) - kada

Sundays - Domingo

I will not work on Tuesday.

Dili ko mo-trabaho sa Martes.

Vocabulary:

I will not - Dili ko

work - trabaho

on - sa

Tuesday - Martes

The typhoon will hit on Saturday evening.

Moigo ang bagyo inig ka Sabado sa gabii.

Vocabulary:

The typhoon - ang bagyo

will hit - moigo -

on Saturday evening - inig ka Sabado sa gabii

We will see each other again on Wednesday.

Magkita ta balik inig ka Miyerkules.

Vocabulary:

We will see each other - Magkita ta

Again - balik

On - ig ka

Wednesday - Miyerkules